Your Personal Data

What information do we need?

Argyll and Bute Council will act as the 'Data Controller' in regard to the personal data you provide to us. The Data Protection Officer can be contacted at the Council's headquarters is at Kilmory, Lochgilphead PA31 8RT. The email address is: data.protection@argyll-bute.gov.uk

Argyll and Bute Council require information to provide you with Education services. This information is detailed in the registration form for nursery or school, or in supplementary forms to apply for particular support. For the purposes of this specific service, the personal data we require includes special category information about you (also known as 'sensitive personal data') which may include race / ethnic origin, religious beliefs or health details.

When we are using this more sensitive type of personal information, our legal basis is usually that we require the information for reasons of substantial public interest for aims that are proportionate and which contain appropriate safeguarding measures.

There will be times where we also receive information about you from other organisations, such as a previous school, the previous local authority where that school or ELC setting was based, the NHS, Police Scotland, Social work, Additional Support Services, and sometimes other organisations or groups connected to your education.

Why we need this information?

Your information is being collected to help deliver an effective educational programme and to support your learning, monitor and report on your progress, provide appropriate pastoral care, offer appropriate support to families, and assess the quality of our services. We will also use information we hold to assess entitlement to Education initiatives and relevant Scottish Government programmes.

If you do not provide this information then we will be unable to provide those services to you. We will not collect any personal data from you that aren't needed for delivery of those services.

The legal basis for collecting your information in these circumstances is:

Article 6(1)(e) - public task on the basis of the statutory obligations placed on the Council by:

- Education (Scotland) Act 1980
- Education (Additional Support for Learning) (Scotland) Act 2009
- Equality Act 2010
- Scottish Schools (Parental Involvement) Act 2006
- Standards in Scotland's Schools etc. Act 2000
- Children and Young People (Scotland) Act 2014

Article 9(2)(g) - special categories of data can also be collected for reasons of substantial public interest for aims that are proportionate and which contain appropriate safeguarding measures.

What we will do with your information?

The majority of the information we collect from you will be processed by staff in the United Kingdom. There may be times when data is processed outwith the European Union and although they may not be subject to the same data protection laws as in the UK, we will take steps to make sure they provide an adequate level of protection in accordance with UK data protection laws.

Your information may be shared with other companies to help schools meet your educational needs and to provide education as defined in the Education (Scotland) Act 1980 and other associated legislation. We will take steps to make sure these companies provide an adequate level of protection in accordance with UK data protection laws. Specific information of the companies involved can be obtained from your school.

In addition to the above, Argyll and Bute Education department has a legal duty to promote, support and safeguard the wellbeing of children in our care. Wellbeing concerns can cover a range of issues depending on the needs of the child.

Staff are trained to identify when children and families can be supported and records are kept when it is thought that a child could benefit from help available in the school/ELC setting, community or another professional. You can expect that we will tell you if we are concerned about your wellbeing, and talk to you about what supports might help in the circumstances. Supports are optional and you will not be required to take them up.

If it would be helpful to share information with someone else, we will discuss this with you before we share it so that you know what is happening and why. The only time we may share information with another organisation without discussing it with you is if we believe that a child may be at risk of harm. In these situations, we have a duty to protect children, which means that we may be obliged to share information without your knowledge.

We will also generally comply with requests for, and share, specific information from other regulatory and law enforcement bodies where this is necessary and appropriate.

You should also be aware that your data will be stored on servers located within the United Kingdom and some data will be processed outside the European Union. Your data will also be held as paper files which are stored securely. Correspondence is kept in email format for the current year plus 3 archived years. We will take all reasonable steps to ensure that your data is kept securely and more information on how we do this is provided on the Council website (www.argyll-bute.gov.uk) or can be provided in paper format on request to your School Support 01369 704000.

If you have provided anyone else's details on this form please make sure that you have told them that you have given their information to Argyll and Bute Council. We will only use this information to contact them in the event of an emergency or share their data in relation to legal requirements as detailed above.

How long will we keep your information?

We will usually keep your information for 5 years following your leaving date, after this period it will be destroyed under secure arrangements if it is no longer required for the lawful purpose(s) for which it was obtained. For children and young people who are currently or have been Looked After and Accommodated by a local authority, files will be kept indefinitely in line with the requirements and recommendations of the Scottish Child Abuse Inquiry (SCAI). More information on our retention schedule is provided on the Council website (www.argyll-bute.gov.uk) or can be provided in paper format on request to School Support 01369 704000.

We will provide details of the current information held for contact and personal information on an annual basis. If someone is no longer a contact we will remove their details from the SEEMiS Management Information system.

Automated Decision Making

Schools will not use automatic decision making or profiling but some may use assessment tools which will aid their decision making processes to provide support that may be required in your education.

Your Rights

When you provide information to the Council, you will have the following rights:

- to withdraw consent at any time, where the legal basis specified above is consent
- to lodge a complaint with the Information Commissioner's Office
- to request access to your personal data
- to data portability, where the Legal basis specified above is i) consent or ii) performance of a contract
